- ♥ Thank you CHARLEY [HARRELL] for all your help. Your sweet smile and understanding helped me through a rough patch. First I needed a walker, then I needed a wheelchair, and then I tried a different walker which was too heavy. Then I went back to the first walker. Each time you were there for me when I showed up at the We Care storeroom. When I said, "I am your best customer," you laughed at my feeble joke. Now I'm on the road to recovery. Thank you and We Care for everything. PHYLLIS BERKE
- ♥ With a heavy heart, I wish to thank the many residents of Rainberry Bay for their very kind and caring words with the passing of my amazing daughter, Bonnie. Your condolences were deeply appreciated. ARLENE RIFKIN
- ♥ SUSAN & HOWIE ROTUN would like to thank all of the residents at Rainberry Bay who offered us their support the night of the fire in our home on NW 31st Ave. We just moved to Rainberry Bay in April and the outpouring from our neighbors (most of whom didn't even know us) that offered us food, clothing, and a place to stay at their home. EN ROUTE TO MEXICO,
April 17, 1914.

Some say that as early as April 1914, a group of Navy coordinators held a "Happy Hour Social" at a certain time of day so that shipmates could mingle and discuss ship happenings. It wasn't all business either – they also served booze until June 1914 when a general order put a stop to serving alcohol. The social hour continued but it was not nearly as "happy".

The U.S. Navy was not the only enlisted guzzling an adult beverage. The Gin and Tonic was used by the British East India Company to treat malaria. Quinine, commonly used to treat Malaria, was an unpleasant drink to swallow. Mixing the swill with gin, sugar, and limes made the much tastier and more appealing. Gin and Tonic is now a quintessential classic cocktail.

The Sidecar has an equally medicinal purpose. An Army Captain stationed in Paris, tormented by a cold, set foot into a bar for relief. The barkeep concocted a healing elixir of cognac, Cointreau, lime juice and a twist and named it the Sidecar, after the captain's preferred mode of transportation.

So, where do the people of Delray Beach celebrate Happy Hour? Picking the right happy hour is not easy. The right bartender, the best discount, extended hours. This is especially true in Delray Beach where there are hundreds of restaurants and bars. Here is a list of some of the best places to "Get Happy" in Delray Beach.

BOSTON'S ON THE BEACH

Boston's on the Beach has happy hour Monday through Friday from 4:00 PM – 7:00 PM in the Bar and Lounge. Go for the 50% off draft beers, domestic bottles, well drinks and house wines and selected discounted appetizers. Work your way through the New England inspired menu. The lobster roll is worth trying.

40 South Ocean Blvd. 561-278-3364.

SWIZZLE TIP: FEE FOR VALET PARKING AND BEACH PARKING.

50 OCEAN

50 Ocean has an elegant lounge overlooking the Atlantic Ocean. Located upstairs from Boston's, this is a classy place to enjoy a half-price cocktail and gourmet appetizers on the cheap during happy hour Monday through Friday from 3:00 PM – 7:00 PM. Happy hour specials include 50% off premium liquor, draft beers, domestic bottles, well drinks and house wines as well as discounted select appetizers.

50 South Ocean Blvd. 561-278-3364.

SWIZZLE TIP: ARRIVE EARLY TO SNAG A SEAT WITH A SPECTACULAR VIEW OF THE ATLANTIC OCEAN

RACKS FISH HOUSE AND OYSTER BAR

Rack's Fish House and Oyster Bar is the place to be seen in Delray Beach. The happy hour draws quite a crowd and for good reason. The oysters are shucked to order and are a giveaway at $1 per mollusk. Mussels and shrimp cocktail, ribs and tacos are also a steal. Happy hour prices are available Monday through Sunday from 4:00 PM – 7:00 PM at the bars and high tops only.

5 SE 2nd Ave. 561-450-6718

SWIZZLE TIP: GRAB A SEAT BY THE OYSTER BAR FOR A SHUCKING GOOD SHOW.

ATLANTIC GRILL AT THE SEAGATE HOTEL

The Atlantic Grill at the Seagate Hotel is a spectacular bar and a perfect place to people-watch. Located on Atlantic Avenue, the scene is bustling with action. Enjoy the peaceful atmosphere of the bar while sipping a cool cocktail. Happy hour happens Monday through Sunday from 4:00 PM – 7:00 PM. Wines, drafts, and well drinks are offered at a discount along with a specially priced appetizer menu

1000 East Atlantic Avenue. 561-665-4900.

SWIZZLE TIP: CHECK OUT THE FISH TANKS IN THE EXQUISITE SEAGATE HOTEL LOBBY.

WOOD & FIRE

Wood & Fire's happy hour buzzes with locals who live west of the downtown area. And it is no wonder why this pizza and pasta joint attracts a gathering. With happy hour every day, Monday through Sunday from 3:00 PM – 7:00 PM and a menu that includes half-priced drinks and extensive bar bite menu, it is the place to be for the midtown crowd. Angry Shrimp Bruschetta ($10) and Wood & Fire wings are amongst the favorites on the extensive happy hour menu. 5199 West Atlantic Avenue. 561-332-2300.

SWIZZLE TIP: HAPPY HOUR IS ONLY AVAILABLE AT THE BAR AND COMMUNAL TABLES.

TERRA FIAMA

Terra Fiama is one of the few original restaurants in the Delray Marketplace and for good reason. Their food is legitimate and their prices are right. The happy hour is Sunday through Friday from 11:30 AM – 6:00 PM and is often accompanied with live entertainment on the outdoor patio. Expect discounted cocktails, wines and beers along with a unique Italian-inspired happy hour bar menu with favorites like Fried Calamari and Sausage and Broccoli Rabe Stuffed Mushrooms. Many appetizers are enough to share.

9169 West Atlantic. 561-495-5570.

SWIZZLE TIP: IF PARKING IS UNAVAILABLE, THERE IS A LOT LOCATED BEHIND THE RESTAURANT WITH PLENTY OF SPACES.

DEATH OR GLORY

Death or Glory is the hippest place in downtown Delray Beach. Part Gothic – part speakeasy, the cocktails are a science in their own right. Order a Bee's Knees ($6) made from New Amsterdam vodka, honey and lemon. You do not need a secret code to get into this happy hour. You can be delighted Monday—Sunday from 4—7 PM. Try a $6 cocktail, beer or house wine, along with $8 wings, $10 burgers and $8 empanadas. 116 NE 6th Avenue. 561-808-8814.

SWIZZLE TIP: ORDER A CRAFT COCKTAIL FOR A UNIQUE EXPERIENCE.

WHY ARE WE UPDATING OUR DOCUMENTS?

MASTER, HOMES, AND VILLAS DOCUMENTS:

Declarations, By-Laws, and Articles of Incorporation are in need of an update as times and laws have changed. The By-Laws and Articles need very few corrections.

The Declarations need to reflect some of the Florida law changes. The majority of sections remain the same, but language referring to the Developer will be removed. A clause is being added to allow the board to disapprove a proposed lease, transfer, sale or occupancy of any lot (home / villa) within our community. This is something our residents have been asking for!

These will also give the Board the ability to enforce both the Rules and the Documents – something else we've been asked for. More information will follow. When it's time, please do vote to approve them all.

HOMES & VILLAS DOCUMENTS:

We need to approve these new changes because we are losing money if foreclosures are not properly allotted. In addition, we want to prevent our Homes & Villas from being used as short-term rentals (e.g. Airbnb) and half-way houses. These are important restrictions that will help keep our community safe and protect its property values. Additionally, the Homes board wants to thank the 7 volunteers assisting with this process.

Please be prepared to vote "Yes" when we bring the new docs to you for approval. Our community is only as good as the documents that govern it!

COMCAST / XFINITY CONTRACT

1. New contract begins January 2020.
2. Bundling TV and high speed Internet
3. Access to the X-1 platform with voice controlled remote.
4. Retain HBO and current channels
5. Modem/router included.
6. If your home needs new wiring, it will be provided at no charge.
7. Phone service is optional and residents who want it may negotiate for it separately.
8. More details will follow as we proceed.

FROM THE HOMES BOARD:

Karen Clouser

First of all the Homes Board would like to thank all of you who are coming out to our Homes Meetings. It is refreshing to see new faces at each meeting as well as your positive responses to our meeting information. Please sign-in when you come to the meetings. Those of you who did sign-in will find your name typed out – just check yourself off. Please print your name clearly so that I can read it.

We need to stress that "Everything begins with a work order." This way we can track the process. Those who were at the meeting heard the work order report that Mark gave and know that most were taken care of for the month prior.

If you see him, please thank MICHAEL PINES for his years of service as our Roofing Chairman. Welcome BOB WALLACE as our new Roofing Chair.

If you really want to know what is going on, come to the meetings and hear it firsthand! Don't listen to the rumor mill, because not everyone has necessarily been at meetings.

OPERAS AND BALLETS

Michael and Sandra Elaiszen-Cantwell

We are showing three operas in November, each of which in its own way has a claim to being "the greatest opera ever written."

Due to the Halloween Party, we are re-scheduling the October 25 showing of The Marriage of Figaro. Napoleon called the Beaumarchais play on which Mozart's opera was based "the revolution in action." The play was censored in Vienna, but Mozart, as imagined by Peter Schafer in his play Amadeus, assures the Emperor "this is just a frolic, a piece about love." Actually, it is both. And it is revolutionary in both form and content.

Prior to Figaro, operas (including Mozart's) were based on myths and involved gods, goddesses, and heroes. Figaro portrays real people in real situations, and presents the aristocracy as inept and venal, the servants as capable and clever. Musically, it was also entirely new, particularly the 20 minutes of transcendent music with which the second act closes – moving from duet to trio to quartet to quintet, then sextet, and finally octet, without any break for recitative.

Parsifal is Wagner's greatest opera. Wagner is universally recognized as both a transformational composer and a repellent creature, and one can and should separate the music and the man. Even so, nothing in Wagner's prior operas prepares us for the essential holiness (there is no other word for it) of the score of Parsifal. It has been characterized, in our view appropriately, as "a sacred piece in the history of music."

Finally, there is Fidelio. Its claim to being the "greatest opera" rests on the fact that it is Beethoven's only opera, and he is the greatest composer who ever lived. But it is great not only because of the music but because of its simple but powerful message: it is our duty to speak out against tyranny and to help the oppressed whenever we can. It is no less relevant today than it was in the early Nineteenth Century.

OPERA/BALLET FOR NOVEMBER

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 9

1:00 PM

MARRIAGE OF FIGARO, WOLFGANG AMADEUS MOZART

Possibly the greatest opera ever written, Figaro is not only the vehicle for some of Mozart's most sublime music, not merely a romantic comedy with a hefty helping of farce, it is revolutionary in both its musical structure and its depiction of a crumbling feudal system.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 15

1:00 PM

PARSIFAL

RICHARD WAGNER.

Wagner's final — and greatest — opera.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 29

1:00 PM

Fidelio is Beethoven's only opera. It offers a simple but powerful message: it is our duty to speak out against tyranny and to help the oppressed whenever we can. It is no less relevant today than it was in the early Nineteenth Century.

BOBBY KELTON

Phyllis Berke

Why do they sell lemon juice with artificial ingredients, and lemon floor wax with real lemon juice? Now I drink tea with a twist of mop and glow!

Why do they lock the restroom at a gas station? Are they afraid somebody is going to break in and clean up?

We had to take my ninety-five year old mother's drivers license away because she hit a deer. It was in the zoo!

BOBBY KELTON, comedian, has gotten lots of laughs with jokes like that. He didn't start his career as a stand-up comedian; it just happened. Growing up on Long Island he and his brothers used to goof around pretending to be entertainers. He was mostly interested in sports. But Bobby had a hidden passion. He would watch comedians on television and think to himself, "I can do that!" Graduating from Syracuse University with a degree in journalism, he moved to California and found work as a sports reporter for the LA Times.

He and friends often went to The Comedy Store or the Improv. Once a week these comedy clubs had something called Open Mics where comics are each given five minutes to do an act. One night a friend of his told the manager that Bobby was a known comedian. Bobby's name was announced and suddenly he was on stage with a microphone in his hand. He realized that his friend tricked him and decided to play along. With no preparation, he didn't do too well, but he loved the experience which changed his life forever. He was hooked!

In less than a year, Bobby developed an act, quit his job on the newspaper and pursued a career in comedy. His routines generally centered around observations about everyday life such as airlines, relationships, his parents, sports and dumb things we all do and say were his forte. He wrote two books, one a hilarious look at internet dating called PLEASE DON'T LET THIS BE HER!, so titled because whenever he met a date for coffee or drinks, she never looked like her photos. He began to pray those words whenever a potential date walked towards his table. He also wrote HECKLER! a compilation of his humorous and incredible backstage show biz experiences.

Bobby's comedy routines were clean which reflected his Long Island upbringing and his belief in a healthy lifestyle. He soon became a favorite in New York and L.A. comedy clubs. While in the process of competing for the title of America's Best Young Comedian on ABC, a scout for Johnny Carson's Tonight show offered him a spot. One of the conditions of the ABC contest was that the comedian must NOT have been on any prior tv show. What a dilemma! Bobby was torn. Being on the Johnny Carson Tonight show was a lifelong dream, but he turned it down. In the end, he won the Best Young Comedian title and a month later got that spot on Carson. He was a winner all around.

The first time Bobby performed on Johnny Carson's Show he was the only comedian to get a spontaneous standing ovation. He returned three more times that month and a total of twenty-one altogether over the next ten years. He was a frequent guest on numerous other shows such as Hollywood Squares, 48 Hours and Dick Clark's American Bandstand. Bobby was sought after as the opening act for stars such as Tom Jones, Paul Anka and Gladys Knight, from Los Angeles to Atlantic City, Canada and Europe.

There were times Bobby met with unexpected situations and he had to rely on his wits, guile and experience to go on with his act. Once, as an entertainer at a comedy club in Newport Beach, CA, to his surprise, the entire audience was made up of deaf people. An interpreter stood next to him on stage and relayed his jokes. As he adjusted to the situation, he teased the interpreter at one point by saying to the crowd, "How do I know this interpreter is even doing my jokes? Maybe she's doing her own act and getting my laughs!". The audience was delighted with his mock consternation.

Now that Bobby lives in Florida, most of his engagements are in the many communities all over the state. He loves performing here as the crowds are terrific and informed. He loves the Florida lifestyle, and he loves living here except for during the hurricane season. Then, like the rest of us, he knows that he'll have to make a decision whether to evacuate or not. An avid fisherman, you might see Bobby and his girlfriend Adrienne casting their fishing lines from the beach near Atlantic Avenue. Bobby is fun to be with, down to earth with a quirky sense of humor.

After a recent show a mysterious elderly lady approached him and took his hand. "You are medicine for the heart and soul," she said before disappearing into the crowd. Bobby took that to heart and he hopes to continue to dispense his medicine wherever he can with no copay or deductible required.

NOVEMBER LIFE STORIES

Andrea Baron

The Most Fun We Ever Had by Claire Lombardo tells the story of a Midwestern family with four sisters. While some describe the family relationships as messy, loving, or intense, it has also been branded as "sisterly malice." Where does the fun come in? People Magazine explains, "You'll be glad this loopy family isn't yours, but reading about them is a treat." As someone with two sisters of my own, I put this one right at the top of my TBR (to be read) pile.

This month's films reflect on the lives of very different men and their formative years. The Last Black Man in San Francisco is a touching story about love: the friendship of two black men, and the love that a childhood home and city can generate. This Sundance award-winner is a story of class, race and gentrification in San Francisco.

Tolkien is a new film about the life of J.R.R. Tolkien, author of The Hobbit and The Lord of the Rings trilogy. The film explores the friendship and inspiration Tolkien finds in a group of writers beginning in grammar school, as well as the impact of his experiences in the First World War on his work. Following the war he became a professor at Oxford, where he began writing his fantasy novels.

The film has generated some controversy, as the Tolkien estate has disavowed the film. Biopics often take artistic license with details, while trying to convey the essence of a life. Check out this film and see if you think it does justice to the incredible creativity of Tolkien's work.

And for something completely different, Kathy Griffin: A Hell of a Story is the self-proclaimed "D-List" comic's response to living as a Hollywood pariah after she posed with a "head of Donald Trump." She was ostracized by friends, fired from jobs, and placed on the "No-Fly" list. This film tells the story of how she recovered and what she learned from the experience, told in Griffin's own cynical and comic style.

One of my earliest memories is of seeing my mother in her beach chair, reading a book under an umbrella by the water's edge while my sisters and I played beside her. Of all the life lessons she taught me, that is one of my favorites: to take time at a place I love, restore my spirit with books and the beach.

Lemongrass

Lemongrass is one of the few sushi spots that offers a full bar, making this spot a very happy place to be between Monday and Friday from 4:00 PM – 7:00 PM. The happy hour menu is somewhat limited but includes the sushi staples one would expect at a sushi restaurant worth its salt. Five wines, $6 cocktails, discounted beers and saki along with reasonably priced rolls all under $8 makes this place perfect for sharing snacks with friends.

Whether it is the end of the work week or just a night on the town, Delray Beach has many amazing ways to celebrate our favorite time of day – Happy Hour!

BOOK DISCUSSION GROUP

Joyce Vogel

"Where the Crawdads Sing" by Delia Owens is our first book of the season, on Thursday, November 7, from 1:30-3:00PM, in the Men's Card Room.

Many who have read this beautiful novel, have been touched by Kya, an extraordinary girl, who lives in the marshes of North Carolina's Outer Banks. Her heartbreaking coming-of-age story, intertwined with a gripping murder mystery is the basis for what we believe will be an interesting discussion.

Also, you might want to start reading "The Dressmaker" by Kate Alcott, scheduled for December 5th, an engrossing historical novel, revealing some very compelling people aboard the ill-fated ship, Titanic.

Keeping Us Green

AMERICA RECYCLES DAY 11/15/19

Char Lane

America Recycles Day ("ARD") was established in 1997 and is overseen by Keep America Beautiful (KAB), who engages & supports programs to grow initiatives to educate, involves & encourages recycling activities, & promotes rethinking your recycling habits & reducing, reusing & recycling.

Review your recycling & reusing habits, reflect on how to reduce your footprint (waste) & contribute to saving our environment. We can each make a positive difference in our environmental legacy.

Take the pledge at <https://Americarecyclesday.org/pledge> to doing some specific recycling, reducing or reusing activities. Know what you currently recycle & how you dispose of waste. Please use the recycle bins as intended for only acceptable recyclable items.

Donate clothes, shoes, books, household items, etc., to local charities such as Goodwill, Habitat for Humanity & hospital thrift shops. Donate furniture instead of discarding – charities will pick up and you'll be recycling / reusing and reducing landfill items. Purchase products made of recycled material or buy used items whenever possible.

Take old paint, chemicals, electronics, pesticides & other hazardous items to the Home Recycling Center in DRB or to our Green Committee hazardous waste collections this winter (The 1st 2019-2020 collection is 12/07/19 in the Theater parking lot.)

Bring your plastic bags to our recycling box in the club house lobby 11/09/19 thru 11/16/19.

Join the Green Committee & help us make Rainberry Bay more environmentally friendly.

Our next Meeting is Wednesday 11/06/19 at 4 PM in the Clubhouse Conference Room. Note the change in Meeting rooms.

*Celebrate ARD at SWA Saturday
11/16/19, 9AM – 2 PM.*

6751 N. Jog Road in West Palm Beach

Tour their facilities. Free shredding (9 AM – 1 PM). Take non-perishable food for the food drive and take hazardous waste to their disposal facility adjacent to the 6751 N. Jog facility.

RETHINK HOW you can reduce your environmental footprint.
REDUCE the amount you waste by using less.
REUSE items in good condition by donating, sharing or repurposing.
RECYCLE all acceptable items in the blue or yellow bins.

WHO KNEW CUCUMBERS COULD DO ALL THIS?

Lois Wiesler

Spice up your 8 glasses per day of water with a slice or two of cucumber. It's wonderfully refreshing, but there are amazing benefits to cucumber as well.

1. Puffy eyes? The photochemical in cucumbers makes the collagen in your skin tighten, thus the lack of puffiness. Did you also know that it has the same effect on wrinkles?
2. Defogger: Shower foggy? Try rubbing a slice of cucumber on the mirror before you hop in and not only will you get a fog-free mirror, but you'll have a nice smell that will boost your mood.
3. Headaches: If you suffer from headaches, or had a little too much wine with dinner and want to avoid a hangover, eat half of a cucumber before bed. Cucumbers are high in B vitamins, sugar, and electrolytes, and they replenish the nutrients missing in your body.
4. WD-40 replacement: Did you know you can get rid of a squeak by rubbing a cucumber on the hinge?
5. Tarnish remover: If you're finding tarnish on your stainless steel kitchen faucets and appliances? Rub it off with a cucumber slice.

Not only will it remove years of tarnish, it will leave it streak free and your hands will thank you. You'll avoid the risk from using a dangerous chemical.

6. Energy booster: If you're feeling tired in the afternoon, don't give Starbucks your five bucks. Instead, grab a cucumber. There are just enough carbohydrates and B vitamins to give you a longer-lasting and healthier boost of energy than soda, coffee, or those health hazard energy drinks. Good for midday hunger.
7. Sunburn: Sometimes sun block doesn't always protect you from sunburn. If you don't have any aloe, rub some cucumber on the burn. Many doctors even use cucumber to treat patients with irritated skin and sunburns.
8. Blood pressure: Cucumber has been long used to treat high blood pressure. If you have it, add cucumbers to your daily diet. There is also ongoing research into the use of cucumbers for lowering cholesterol.

"Carrie & Allan did a great job listing and helping me sell my villa. It took about 3 weeks from listing to SOLD. They helped in everything they could to get the best price and to help in every part of the process. They're the best."

-Laurel Lasky, Rainberry Bay

"Carrie & Allan helped me purchase our seasonal home at Aberdeen CC some 20 years ago. During that time they handled our property maintenance, leasing when we were unable to come down, and very recently, the sale of our home. They handled every issue with professionalism & always got very good results. I couldn't have worked with better & nicer Agents."

WOMEN'S CLUB

Beautiful afghan crocheted by Claire Saltz (left) and won by Beverly Fine (right).

On October 10th, the Women's Club enjoyed their annual Card and Games Party/Luncheon at the Delray Golf Club. As always, a wonderful time was had by all. During the luncheon, a fundraising raffle was held, with the prize being a beautiful afghan handmade by our own Treasurer CLAIRE SALTZ. The winner was our own BEVERLY FINE.

During the year, the Women's Club holds a number of fundraisers. The monies raised are earmarked for the charities the club supports. At the end of last season, the club sent donations to the Jacobson Family Food Bank and the Florida Breast Cancer Foundation.

Look for our upcoming November events. On November 14th, we will be having Bingo in the theater. Check out our informational flyer on page 5.

YIDDISH HERITAGE CLUB

Gloria Goldman

Our first meeting of the year had us all tell where our relatives came from, whether in the US or from overseas. We discovered that many came from Eastern Europe mainly from the Ukraine which is so much in the news today. The stories were very interesting and we were all happy to be here now.

The program was presented by GLORIA GOLDMAN who told us the story of how she became an actress and gave us some examples of her monologues.

Next month will be a program, Ruby & His Music, performed by our own RUBY SOSNOWICZ and his daughter, CHANA ROSE. Ruby is the founder and Musical Director of the only Holocaust Survivor Band. He is an archivist of Jewish music and has been entertaining the world for 75 years. We are looking forward to his musical presentation.

Be sure to join us next month Friday, November 8 at 1 PM in the MCR for this wonderful program. We look forward to seeing all our returning snowbirds coming for the season.

Your support is important in keeping Jewish Cultural Heritage alive and supporting the fight against anti-Semitism.

DRAMA CLUB CASTING CALL

Conrad Berke

March 31, April 1, 2 Performances!

Meet us on Tuesday at 2:00 in the Men's Card Room in the Clubhouse.

"Arsenic and Old Lace" is one of the best murder mystery comedies from Broadway to Hollywood. This is a funny show that will lift you out of your seats with broad smiles, suspense, laughter and a bubble of giddy joy. There are twelve characters on stage that will keep you on the edge of your seat from beginning to end.

Arsenic and Old Lace, the play, opened on Broadway in 1941 and ran for four years. It was followed by the movie with Cary Grant, Priscilla Lane, Josephine Hull, Jean Adair, Boris Karloff, Peter Lorre, Raymond Massey, Edward Everett Horton, Jack Carson and James Gleason.

Wild comedy, chaos and escalating mayhem ensue in this wonderful black comedy. Joseph Kesselring's stage play introduces the sweet old Brewster sisters who serve tea spiked with arsenic to lonely, old bachelors. There is an enjoyable lunacy to the whole show.

Would you like to be in the show? You can be on stage, in the spotlight.

Can you act? Can you build sets? Do makeup? Work backstage or onstage? Sell tickets? If you are interested, you can help in many ways. Meet us on Tuesday at 2:00 in the Men's Card Room in the Clubhouse.

THEATRE ARTS: END OF AN ERA

Glenn S Todd

Theatre Arts has been around since mid 1993. It consisted of residents from Rainberry who performed in many shows and musicals that were put on for the residents, friends and relatives of Rainberry Bay. Through the years we have lost members due to age and health, and did not have new people come along to join us. Why not? One of the reasons was that people no longer want to devote the time to rehearse in order to prepare for the shows put on by Theatre Arts.

Theatre Arts was organized by HANA BOGEN. EDDIE COOPER, a talented musician and music arranger was selected as its musical director. From 1993 until 2001, there were only a few shows performed by the members of Theatre Arts. Hana wrote the scripts for the shows and she directed them.

In 2001 Hana suffered two family tragedies, causing her to turn over the reins to CHARLOTTE STORPER. Charlotte had been working with Hana in getting the members prepared for the shows. Before she turned over the reins to Charlotte, Hana stated, "I was grateful for having had the privilege of creating the Theatre Arts Performers (the TAPS). Working with our performers was a delight and then seeing how they enjoyed performing for our audiences. After all, they were our friends and neighbors and cheered us on, bless them." She loved every minute of it all. And the members of Theatre Arts loved her.

DOLORES GORDON joined Theatre Arts about 1997. My wife SARA TODD and I became involved with Theatre Arts in 2006. DIANE FANE joined about 2004. These were talented people who sang and danced in the shows. There were so many talented people in Theatre Arts, there is no way to single out individuals.

When Charlotte took over, the early shows were performed every two years and then every year. Charlotte had the knack of knowing which person to give what parts to. She knew how to bring out the best in people. She did perform on the Broadway stage but her best work was in organizing, writing, and directing. Working alongside EDDIE COOPER, these two created a bond that helped make the shows quite successful.

I want to thank the many people who were in our shows. Some of these people are gone from Rainberry Bay but certainly not forgotten. In alphabetical order, they are:

There were many people who never performed before they joined Theatre Arts

BETTY ABRAMS	IRVING LIEBERMAN
ARTHUR AGIN	CHARLES MANERI
LILLIAN AGIN	CAROL MEISELMAN
EMILE ANDRE	RAY MORA
DORIS ARBUS	JOE OKIN
CALVIN ASKINAZI	IRENE PERLSTEIN
MARILYN ASKINAZI	BERNICE PERNHALL
DOROTHY BARRISH	STAN RABINOWITZ
BEA BASHOVER	SUE RAGOVIN
AL BASHOVER	IRWIN RIFKIN
ELLEN BAYLEK	SELMA ROBBINS
ELLIOT BECKER	SHIRLEY ROSEN
CONRAD BERKE	STAN ROSEN
SONNY BERMAN	LOIS ROSENTHAL
HANA BOGEN	BERNIE SCHRAGER
LOUIS BROWN	DORIS SCHRAGER
CAROLINE CANTOR	JERRY SCHRAGER
AUDREY COHEN	SUE SETLESS
JEAN COOPER	ARLINE SHERMAN
ANGELA DELOPEZ	CAROL SHORE
JOYCE EPSTEIN	JOANNE STEINER
DIANE FANE	CATHY ST. LAURENT
GLORIA FELDMAN	BOB SYKES
BARB FILIPOWSKI	GLENN TODD
APRIL FOX	SARA TODD
GAYLE GALLINAT	ALBERTA VICKERY
GLORIA GOLDMAN	HEBBY WATSKY
DOLORES GORDON	JOAN WERNICK
SYLVIA KAUFMANN	LOIS WIESLER
LARRY KULMAN	FRAN WINIKOFF
JUDI LEMOINE	CHARLOTTE ZEITLIN
RON LEMOINE	JUDY ZIFF

but all wanted the opportunity to perform in front of a live audience. Theatre Arts gave them that opportunity. And the audiences appreciated the talent of the professionals and the non professionals. But Charlotte always said, "With the way we were singing and performing, whether in skits or dancing sequences, we were professionals."

How many of you remember the Rainberry Bay version of the synchronized swimming from the Olympics, which was a very funny take-off on the Olympic swimming. How about the song "Cell Block Tango," especially the part where one of the inmates spoke about three words in Russian? The Rainberry version was performed by SARA TODD, who did the part in Yiddish. Even though many people in the audience did not understand the Yiddish language they got the general idea.

This was the type of live entertainment that we put on for Rainberry Bay When JOANNE STEINER, Assistant Director, became Director after Charlotte passed on, she added a different type of class to Theatre Arts. Our last Musical Director, DON EDWARDS, was brought to us by JUDY ZIFF. Entertainment supreme!

Volunteers who were not in the show filled the theater with efficiency and high quality: backstage people, makeup, ticket sellers, ushers and so on.

Our wonderful set designer, ROSE WEISMAN and her construction crew of people, came into the theatre on Saturdays and Sundays to build the sets for our shows. Rose had been involved in building sets in Broadway theaters. She shared her talents with Rainberry.

In our professional theater booth, MORT LEWIS, IRV SHULMAN and MEL SNOW handled the lights, sound and made sure the audience could see and hear us in all our splendor. Mort is still the main man in the booth today. SID SHERMAN was our main spotlight man until RON LEMOINE and DAVE KULICK came along. Thanks to all these, and many others who helped out volunteering. To those whose names may have been omitted, please accept my apologies.

IRWIN RIFKIN, not a resident of Rainberry Bay but a family member of Theatre Arts. When I told him about the upcoming article, he asked to say, "Thank you" to all of the present and former members of the Theatre Arts Club for not only a job well done but for their acceptance of an outsider in the group and their warm friendship.

BRIDGE CLUB

Joel Speiser

Welcome back Snowbirds! For the next few months, put on your golf shirts and laugh at your parkas!

Your Rainberry Bay Bridge Club provides a friendly, warm atmosphere where friends can get together and enjoy this wonderful game of bridge. Bridge is a great pastime from A to Z—that's Addictive to Zowie!—that can help you live longer by keeping your mind and your wits sharp. I like to think of bridge not as a card game but as a competition where the tools, the equipment, happen to be cards. Like chess pieces. Like video game joysticks. OK, maybe that one is a bit of a stretch. But anyway, we welcome the return of our members; we've missed you at our regular Monday evening games. And of course, we look forward to everyone coming back to our monthly Sunday afternoon parties. Life is good!

Of course, guests are welcome and are encouraged to join us any Monday evening at 6:30 for a 6:45 sharp game start. Need a partner? We'll be glad to find one for you.

The Rainberry Bay Bridge Club proudly adheres to the ACBL Zero Tolerance policy ensuring a warm and friendly playing atmosphere.

Theatre Arts

Members of Theatre Arts say, "It was an experience I will never forget." We worked so hard to provide a professional production. When that curtain opened, we knew that in the audience were fellow residents, friends, and relatives who came to see and hear us perform. This is what Theatre Arts was all about and we are truly saddened to close the club.

PICKLEBALL CLUB ORGANIZATION/ PLANNING

John Gaul

The steering committee would like to invite everyone in Rainberry Bay interested in Pickleball to come to an organization and planning meeting November 21 at 7pm in the Men's Card Room.

The purpose of this meeting is to solicit ideas for social events (parties, trips, dinners, etc.) and pickleball events (round-robins, league play, intercommunity events, etc.) for the coming year. In addition, we would like to choose club officers and event organizers from volunteers in our club.

Please come and contribute your ideas and time to help get our club going strong!

Refreshments will be served!

FROM THE EDITOR

For all Team or Tourney Events: Please keep the Beacon apprised of your standings so we can post them here in the Beacon. We have many members who do participate in events or activities here in Rainberry and we would like to share that information. We need your help.

When you attend an event, or you see some interesting wildlife here, let us know. We love to share pictures of your interests. I can sit in my house, look out at the lake and see all kinds of interesting wildlife. The other day we were visited by a beautiful Florida wading bird who stayed around, and brought friends, for several days. One of our residents took some great pictures and sent them along..

BOCCE

Diane Maxey

MORNINGS – 9 AM WEDNESDAY, SATURDAY, SUNDAY

EVENINGS – 6 PM MONDAY, THURSDAY

INTRAMURAL LEAGUE PLAY WEDNESDAYS—6 PM

We are in the midst of the renovations of the Rainberry Bay bocce courts and eagerly await re-opening. A few weeks without bocce is like a day without sunshine – rare in Florida! But members have kept busy in other venues in the community – helping out at the Men's Club bingo, participating in the Women's Club Card Luncheon, playing pickleball, introducing ourselves to new residents at the Beacon Welcome Party and bowling in the Rainberry Bay Bowling League. So until we resume play and have something new to report, we want to share a few facts about the game.

No one really knows how old bocce is. There were stone balls found in Turkey that date to 9000 BC. Some say bocce dates back to ancient Egypt (5200 BC), but others argue that Greece was its birthplace around 600 B.C. Bocce, in its current form was played in 264 BC during Rome's Punic Wars against Carthage. The game relaxed troops taking their mind off the stress of war. Men played in teams, honing their military strategic thinking as they played.

The Romans spread the popularity of the game throughout the Roman Empire, which encompassed vast areas of Europe, Asia and North Africa. Many people, such as Galileo and DaVinci, played bocce during the Renaissance, seeing its benefits to mind and body. It was also played by emperors, admirals, generals, poets, sculptors and scientists. Bocce was also exported to many countries by Italian migrants, and remains popular with bocce courts and clubs throughout the world. Some form of bocce is played in more countries than any other ball game, with the exception of soccer.

Become a part of bocce history by joining the Bocce club this year. Annual dues are only $10 and you can play as often as you wish. The times of play are at the top of this column.

TABLE TENNIS

TRAIN YOUR BRAIN

Helen Sohne

We know that playing table tennis is great fun, but did you know that it also helps develop your brain?

Dr. Wendy Suzuki, a professor of neuroscience and psychology at New York University says that, "In ping pong, we have enhanced motor functions, enhanced strategy functions and enhanced long-term memory functions." She further explains that table tennis works parts of the brain responsible for movement, fine motor skills and strategy. She believes the game enhances brain function unlike any other sport.

The club meets in the auditorium of our clubhouse on Monday and Wednesday from 12:00 PM to 2:00 PM and Friday from 10:00AM to 12:00 PM. Please remember to wear your sneakers, and if you have a paddle bring that too. We have extra paddles and balls for you to use.

Won't you join us for a friendly game? We are happy to have beginners as well as experienced players.

The weather is turning cooler and w know our snowbirds will be back soor Welcome home! As we begin a new year, we'd like to remind you that our court reservations are on courts.com. We reserve courts the same as always, by leaving a slip in the pro shop, but you'll receive emails confirming court assignments and can always look up the current and future schedules. We will continue using channel 63 to show the you the courts schedule page.

If you haven't used your courts.com, try it out and let us know how you like it or what we can improve. If you have a login, use that. If not, click the "need access" button on the home page. Enter Rainberry Bay as the club, and hit next, then enter your name and email address, and click next. Enter your address/phone on the next page and click Submit, and we'll get you registered.

If you're a new resident, please consider playing tennis. Studies have shown that racquet sports offer some of the best health benefits possible, plus it's fun. New residents get a free lesson from our pro Christy, and every Thursday at 8:30 AM is the free tennis clinic.

Also, it's time to start thinking about joining a team for the Palm Beach Senior League. We play home and away games during January, February, and March. Men's teams play on Mondays and Women's on Thursdays. There are teams for several levels so we'll fit you somewhere. See you on the courts.
