Betty was 99 years young. She was my neighbor, and we had cookies and tea together every week. I'd bring her seashells from my beach walks and she'd put them to her ear and listen for the sounds of the sea.—Deb Peters

◇ Our deepest sympathy goes out to neighbor, RAIZHA CHIESI who lost her beloved son, Gonzalo Vizcardo, 29, to senseless murder in Miami. Gonzalo was a community advocate and activist, a "brilliant star."

HOMES BOARD AMENDMENTS TO DOCUMENTS

Karen Clouser

We hope that everyone had a great Thanksgiving. We appreciated the turn out for the Kick-off Amendments meeting. If you were not able to come to the meeting, I can come to your home if you get a group together and we can discuss the importance of passing both of these amendments. Many of us are concerned about our HOA fees, but passing these 2 amendments will bring money into our pockets to help offset these increases. I am enclosing amendments in layman's terms in our current mailing.

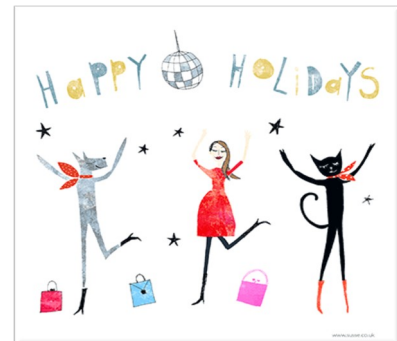

The first amendment reflects a beneficial change in Florida Statute Chapter 720 to allow the Rainberry Bay Homes Association to collect past due monies (HOA fees, special assessments, fines, etc.) on the sale of a foreclosed property (bank owned or other purchaser). Without this amendment to our current documents, the Homes Association cannot recover any past due assessments, leaving the homeowners (us) to absorb the remaining debt.

We, the Homes Board, continue to pay for the landscaping, painting and roofing on these properties, in addition to paying the quarterly Masters assessment. This upkeep is coming out of your pocket. By passing this amendment, we will be able to collect monies due from lenders and third-party purchasers at the foreclosure sale! Because we did not pass the Amendment in August 2019, we lost approximately $20,000 in September.

The second Amendment is intended to simplify the Amendment approval process. This will make it easier to revise the Documents in the future, which may become necessary due to changes in the law or to reflect changes in the desires of the membership. This amendment lowers the requirement for passage from 2/3 (377) yes votes to a simple majority, 50% +1, (283) yes votes of the total homes membership of 565. This will make Homes Documents consistent with Master and Villas who have already approved this change.

The Documents Committee spent a combined 102 hours rewriting these amendments in layman's terms. If we do not pass both of these amendments, it would be senseless to do the entire set of documents. We would not have a leg to stand on when issues come up or the legislature makes changes to Chapter 720 that could benefit us.

The Proxy vote: Please check the box that says a Home's board member will be your proxy. Each one of us is doing the same. Why? If something happens at the last minute and you cannot make the February 18th meeting, at least two of the board members will be there. If you cannot attend and your proxy cannot attend, then there will be 2 ballots that will not count. We need a minimum of 377 ballots to have a quorum. And 377 "YES" votes to pass these amendments! That means for every "NO" vote we need another vote.

FROM THE MASTER BOARD

Lois Wiesler

On behalf of the Rainberry Bay Board of Directors, we wish you a happy and healthy Holiday season, no matter how you celebrate. Where has the time gone? We're wrapping up 2019 and ready to plunge into 2020. Rainberry Bay is now 40 years old and while many things have changed, many have stayed the same.

By now you have all received your copy of the budget for 2020 – if you have not, please contact the office. The Master Board has passed the budget and the new assessment will be effective January 1st. Here is some information that may help if you have questions about the Master Budget.

The largest portion of the increase comes from the new Comcast contract. The contract gives us coverage for three tv sets (the contract ending this year only covered two sets). If you have not already upgraded, we are entitled to two voice-controlled boxes that record, and are now adding a dta (digital adaptor) that you use for a third tv set. We will continue to have HBO as part of our program listings. We are also adding internet coverage. This includes the "Gateway" (modem/route) and wiring to get it working. The cost of internet which has been added to your maintenance is offset by what you might currently pay for the internet. The cost for the cable came down a bit, the cost of internet added, and overall it results in an increase.

If you do not currently use Comcast for your landline phone and want to switch, do not cancel your current plan if you want to keep the same number. They will take care of the transfer of your current phone number. The phone cost, including fees and taxes, comes to around $30 per month. The plan includes unlimited calling within the United States and Canada, and 12 popular calling features including Caller ID, call waiting and voicemail. Compare your current bill and see if this doesn't save you some money.

Additionally, there will be an increase in the landscaping portion of the maintenance. I know that folks complain about landscaping but costs have gone up and more money is required for us to get additional staff here to do what we're asking for. Historically, this is nothing new – Beacons from 20 years ago (and even before that) show that to be our number one complaint. The board has not (as of this writing) finalized a landscaping contract for 2020. That news should be available soon!

OPERAS AND BALLETS

Michael and Sandra Elaiszen-Cantwell

"Bach is the god of Music"

– Pablo Casals

We haven't screened any Bach operas or ballets for a simple reason – he didn't write any. He did, however, produce hundreds of vocal masterpieces. Indeed, for a long period of his career, his job as Director of the St. Thomas Choir of Leipzig required him to provide musical settings of Biblical texts for Sunday services and holidays. During his career Bach wrote more than 300 such "cantatas," of which some 200 survive. We will hear several of these, performed on the instruments used in Bach's time.

It is worth noting that unlike churchgoers in Bach's time, today's audiences attend performances of the cantatas and other of Bach's sacred works to experience some of the most sublime music to come from the human mind and not for religious instruction. Of course, if one is religious in the way Bach was, the texts are an added dimension, but they should not deter anyone from experiencing this timeless music.

The other offering in December is The Nutcracker, the beloved ballet with music by Tchaikovsky. Bring the kids, the grandkids, and the kid in you.

MEET YOUR NEIGHBOR...

LEIGH & TIM BENNETT

Phyllis Berke

Leigh always knew that she wanted to be in show business. She grew up in a small town on the Mississippi River in Illinois. Her mother was a kindergarten teacher and taught music. Leigh and her mom sang in their church. She took many lessons in singing, dancing, piano and saxophone. Leigh was in all her school plays. At home, she sang and danced along with Broadway show tunes. Her mother recognized Leigh's talent and encouraged her to pursue a stage career. When Leigh went to the Central University of Iowa, she majored in Theater.

Tim was raised on a farm in a small town in Iowa. He belonged to a 4H Club and competed for prizes and won a Blue Ribbon for showing a prize bull. At the same time, he loved movies and acting. Amazingly, he remembers the first four movies he ever saw: Ben Hur, Old Yeller, Zolt and Son of Flubber! Like Leigh, Tim always acted in school plays, but didn't expect to make a career out of it.

While in college, Tim was interested in studying archeology and ancient history, but he was always enthusiastic about the theater. He wound up with a Theater scholarship at the Central University of Iowa. When Tim graduated from college, Leigh was a sophomore. His acting career began at the Old Creamery Theater Company. He learned many aspects of theater at the Creamery where he worked on sound and lighting as well as acting.

One day, Tim was doing some work in a lighting booth above the stage in the university theater. Leigh was rehearsing a dance routine on the stage for one of her classes and had no idea that Tim was up there. He was already attracted to Leigh since they both were in the same English class that year. While watching her rehearse he was entranced, he was hooked!

In 1975 after a whirlwind courtship, Tim proposed marriage and Leigh accepted. She left after her sophomore year at the university and received a Mrs. degree. They both began working for the Creamery. Leigh auditioned for summer stock in 1976. Both had roles in a bicentennial show which toured eight states throughout the Midwest.

In 1977 Leigh and Tim moved to Florida after completing a summer stock production of The Taming Of The Shrew at the Creamery. They settled in Boca Raton and Leigh finished her degree at Florida Atlantic University. Tim connected with Jan McArt's Royal Palm Theatre in Boca. He was with them for fifteen years doing scenic design and acting in their shows. Over the years, Leigh played in many musicals at Jan McArt's theater and at different theaters in many Florida cities. While working at Jan McArt's dinner theater, they both became Actors Equity members.

After the Royal Palm Theatre closed, Tim began a new job at the Caldwell Theater in Boca, which lasted twenty years. He designed their sets and acted in their plays. Nowadays he does freelance scenic design and has designed scenes for a play that has a December opening.

Leigh's career also took off. With her singing and dancing, she was a natural for musical shows. She was often in demand to be with musicals and comedies all over Florida. Tim had a relatively stable career with long time commitments that didn't require much traveling. Their marriage suffered from the stresses and strains that showbiz couples often experience. His hours were erratic. She was away for months at a time. Although they loved each other dearly, they made the difficult decision to divorce. They remained friends and encouraged each other to achieve their goals.

When Leigh was chosen to play the role of the Iowa housewife in the show, Menopause the Musical, she was in the road show for ten years. It was a blast but didn't contribute to a harmonious home life. She especially enjoyed the role of a stripper in the play Gypsy. In a hilarious scene, the experienced strippers "educated" Gypsy. They told her that she had to have a gimmick! Leigh's gimmick was playing a trumpet. She played it and sang and moved her trumpet around in a provocatively sexual way which regularly evoked laughter. If you know Leigh, can you picture her in this role?

After fifteen years of living apart, they remarried in 2013. Tim and Leigh never stopped loving each other. At this stage in their careers they were ready to accommodate each other's individual and mutual dreams. It's a joy to be in their company.

Leigh has recently appeared in a stage show in a small theater in Fort Lauderdale. In the play, she and three other 60 plus women shared their thoughts about their first sexual experiences. The title of the play is The Lost Virginity Tour in which they all visit the locations where each had lost her virginity. It was a funny and heartwarming story. Too bad, it closed on November 24th. Let's follow her career as she auditions for new roles.

Congratulations Leigh and Tim on your successful careers and your successful marriages!

BOOK DISCUSSION

Nancy Effrain

Let's continue our reading journey together with the romantic, issue-filled, historical novel, The Dressmaker by Kate Alcott, on Dec. 5 in the Men's Card Room, at 1:30-3:00 pm. Our library has limited availability. JOYCE VOGEL coordinates the group and this month, NANCY EFFRAIN and GAYLE GALLINAT will be facilitating this discussion.

Kate Alcott's inspiration for this exciting book was the movie, Titanic, and the actual sinking of the ship 100 years before the release date of the novel. It focuses on the aftermath of the sinking about how the survivors fared following the horrific event. The author skillfully weaves together real people, along with intriguing fictional characters. One fictional character, Tess, a servant girl, tenaciously obtains passage on the ship as a maid for the real life famous designer, Lady Lucile Duff Gordon.

The question posed by Alcott is what are the consequences on individual's lives when they are forced to make split-second decisions during a crisis situation. Enhance your enjoyment by reading the book before attending.

January's book, is packed full of who-done-it killings of rich American Indians. The non-fiction book, Killers of the Flower Moon, presents the Osage murders, and introduces us to the beginnings of the FBI. This will all be discussed on January 2.

BLOCK CAPTAINS

Ann-Marie Blondin

Annual Collection: The year seems to go so fast! In the next few weeks, the Block Captains will begin our 2019/2020 collection to benefit Delray Beach Police and Fire Departments. Rainberry Bay is proud to continue with this long tradition. Each year when I meet with the Police and Fire Chiefs, they express sincere gratitude for Rainberry Bay's generosity. Do you know that Rainberry Bay is the only Delray Beach development to offer this donation to our first responders?

We need more help so we may continue with the door to door collection process. If you are available and want to say hi to your neighbors, please give me a call.

Club and Committee Heads- Update your information flyers! It is now time to update your flyers that are included in the new resident welcome packet. If you have 2019 dates for events or wish to make any other changes, please send me your updated flyer electronically in a Word document. If you have any questions, please give me a call or email.

The next Block Captain meetings are at 2 PM in the Clubhouse Craft room on Dec 2, 2019 and Jan 6, 2020. For questions: Anne-Marie Blondin at 561 279 7914 or email: amblondin@gmail.com

Wishing you and your families Happy Holidays and the best of everything for the new year!

PRESERVING HISTORY

Shelley Glass

Our archives are filled with information about the community from its inception through 40 years of growth and change. Much of the information we are preserving comes from old minutes, contracts and legal files; however, some of the most interesting items have come from the pictures and memorabilia that our residents have provided.

These items give us a glimpse of the many contributions our residents made to the community and the wonderful social opportunities that made Rainberry Bay a great place to live. We are appealing once again to residents who may have pictures, committee notes, or other information that relates to the history of the community to please share it with the Archive Committee.

All materials will be scanned and returned to you. You can contact me at rainberryarchiving@gmail.com or shelley.glass@gmail.com

HURRICANE EDUCATION

Helen Sohne

We made it through another hurricane season unscathed. However, the terrible damage in the Bahamas reminds us why we prepare.

Enjoy the calmer months to come and think about what upgrades your home might need to be safer in hurricane season. This is a good time to stock up on supplies, consider a generator, new windows or hurricane shutters. Should you decide on these alterations to your home, please apply to the Architectural Control Committee for information on these upgrades.

Wishing all of our friends and neighbors a happy, healthy and hurricane-free holiday season.

LAKE DELRAIN FACT

Char Lane

There are fake ducks in our lake and the actual purpose of them, aside from providing a perch for real ducks, is that they are attached to and keep the irrigation pipes off the bottom of the lake. They also serve to identify the location of the irrigation pipes for maintenance purposes.

FOOD HALL FRENZY

If you think food halls are a passing trend, think again. Food halls have been around since the second century. Today, food halls from Miami's South Beach to West Palm Beach, are giving restaurants a run for their guests.

Here is a bit of history. It is said that the original food hall opened its doors in Rome around 107-110 CE during the reign of the Roman emperor Trajan.

The Trajan Market was built as a commercial building that held shops and some restaurants. The shopkeepers sold local products from across the empire like fruit, vegetables, fish, wine, oil, and spices.

Nowadays, the food halls are more sophisticated and are here to stay.

TIME OUT MARKET

1601 Drexel Avenue
Miami, FL 33139
786-753-5388
www.TimeOutMarket.com

Time Out Market in Miami houses 18 eateries under one roof. All of the eateries in the food hall are outposts of restaurants located in and around the Miami Beach area.

When you enter Time Out, the first thing you will notice is the communal tables situated throughout the space. The Main Bar is located in the center of the food hall and serves as its social hub.

They say a good cocktail makes the meal. Well, the Main Bar is staffed with bartenders from two Miami hotspots, The Broken Shaker and Sweet Liberty, to shake things up. Guest bartenders from some of Miami's hottest watering holes join the ranks on special occasions.

The food scene is quite eclectic with so many choices. On a recent visit, my guests and I shared several dishes. Most notable were the Crispy Maitake Mushrooms and Shishito Peppers from Jeremy Ford, chef at Miami's Stubborn Seed and Top Chef winner. The Maitake Mushrooms were lightly battered and crisp-fried to a golden crunch and served with grilled Shishito Peppers alongside a tangy dipping sauce.

Jeremy Ford's Conch Fritters were more like hush puppies or savory doughnuts, sweet with the flavor of fresh conch. Thai Chili Sauce complemented the dish.

Gorgio Rapicavoli, of Eating House in Coral Gables, served up sizzling Brussel Sprouts drizzled in Korean BBQ Sauce and topped with Cucumbers and Radishes.

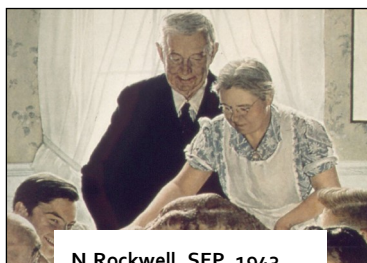

This decadently savory sweet balance starts with large fresh brussel sprouts that are dropped in the deep fryer. Once crispy on the outside, the sprouts are quickly tossed in a lacquery sauce that coats the vegetables like glass.

Our last stop was Miami Smokers, the same BBQ joint located at the American Airlines Arena and several other locations. Good smoke is hard to resist. Miami smokers delivers on the smoke and the tender meats. We shared the Butcher Board which consisted on Smoked Chicken Wings, Alligator Sausage and Award Winning Ribs. The Butcher Board is enough for two people as an entrée and three for an appetizer, the BBQ was soul-satisfying, comfort food.

Located just a few blocks from the Convention Center, Time Out is worth the trip. Parking is easy at the nearby public parking garage.

GRANDVIEW PUBLIC MARKET

1401 Clare Avenue
West Palm Beach, FL 33401
www.GrandviewPublic.com

Grandview Public Market is located in West Palm Beach, away from the hustle of City Place, near the Armory Art Center in the up- and-coming Warehouse District. Grandview Public is a great alternative for Happy Hour or pre-theater dinner. Housed in over 13,000 square feet are some of West Palm Beach and the surrounding area's best restaurants in proper pop-up fashion. This oasis of epicurean amazement has something to put a smile on everyone in your party.

The Grandview hosts 12 eateries ranging from Mediterranean to Mexican. If the crowd wants tacos, stop by Zipitos for a spicy Pulled Port Taco or a Chicken Tinga Taco. Both treats will conjure an "Olé" from the gang.

Clare's Kitchen is the place to visit for crispy and authentic fried chicken. Buttermilk fried chicken sets the standard and Clare's Kitchen has the recipe for the crustiest, crispiest, most tender and delicious chicken. Bird is not the only word in this eating place, there is a large vegetarian menu available, too.

When in the Mediterranean mood, head over to Lokanta Mediterranean Kitchen. Falafel and grilled artichokes are great starters. Larger meals like Grilled Chicken Kebabs and Souvlaki will satiate the appetite.

Quinn, the market's only general store, featured curated and timeless pieces for the home, children's items and other unique products.

Go out and enjoy a local food hall. You will be glad you did.

CHALLENGING CHARACTERS

Andrea Baron

She's ornery, retired, maddening, surprising, lonely and endearing, and I loved her. Are you familiar with Elizabeth Strout's Olive Kitteridge? She engaged readers in the first book and TV movie, and now we have a sequel, Olive Again. I'm looking forward to reading this one, like revisiting an old friend, (but not your bestie). She endures many trials in her Maine hometown, but, as one reviewer put it, she demonstrates that "empathy, a requirement for love, helps make life not unhappy."

Also coming this month is Margaret Atwood's book The Testaments, a sequel to The Handmaid's Tale, a blockbuster book and TV movie. The story is partly a thriller about resistance to the evil empire.

If you're looking for a break from angst and futuristic dysfunction, try John Grisham's The Guardians, a legal thriller set in Florida. In his 40th book, Grisham is sure to provide another terrific, gripping, and suspenseful read.

In this month's DVDs, The Farewell is a terrific, funny film that tells the story of a Chinese family. A young woman returns to China to say farewell to her grandmother, who is dying of cancer. The family refuse to tell her she is dying, and the film explores lies and truths and how they impact the family relationships.

Music fans can also find some great films this month. David Crosby: Remember My Name, is the honest, moving, and unflinching documentary of his life, challenging personality, and belief in the music of the era. Another great music film is Yesterday. A young musician is transformed by a worldwide anomaly into the only person who remembers the music of the Beatles. As he realizes this, he claims the music as his own and becomes a superstar. The story is lightweight fun and the soundtrack, of course, is wonderful. Enjoy!

DECEMBER 10, 2019 – Hazardous waste collection in the theater parking lot from 9 AM – 11 AM Saturday morning.

DECEMBER 15, 2019 – We'll have a table at the Rainberry Bay Arts Fair on Sunday from 11:30 AM – 3:00 PM. Learn about composting, native plants and recycling. Pick up a pen or magnet.

We, along with FL Fish & Wildlife and marine ecologist Heather Stewart, have been studying our lake, the native growth in and around the lake and types of birds and other wildlife. We want to enhance the appearance and possibly add a sunning platform (rock or floating dock) for the many turtles that are currently visible only from the FSR office and a couple of homes. We'll provide updates as we go forward.

Old / expired medicines, pills, lotions and ointments can be disposed at the Walgreens (NW corner Military and Woolbright) or 6458 Linton (SE corner Linton & Jog), DRB

Police Station (300 W Atlantic) or PBSO (14925 Cumberland.) Please put them in a Ziploc bag for disposal and keep the empty bottles (with lids) for our collection cart in the clubhouse snack room.

The recycling bins should only be used for items listed on the bins. Recyclable paper and cardboard items go in the yellow bins. Plastic, glass and metal food and drink containers and cans go in the blue bins. Itemized lists are on the Rainberry website, in previous Beacons, in Welcome packages and on the clubhouse turnstile. There's an ongoing problem with such items as paint cans, furnace filters and other inappropriate items being put into the bins. Please follow the guidelines.

Keeping Us Involved

WOMEN'S CLUB

Ruth Razzetti & Sharon Shore

The Women's Club will again be collecting for the Jacobson Food Bank. Each second Thursday of the month, when there is a Women's Club Luncheon, non-perishable items can be brought to the Theater lobby between the hours of 12 noon and 2 P.M. Nothing in glass or meat items (i.e, chicken soup) will be accepted. While the Jacobson is Kosher, they do distribute to everyone in the community.

Some special events are upcoming including a fashion show in January featuring Patchington and in February, The Golden Age of Television, presented by Larry Strickler. Watch the Beacon, RIC, and Raindrops for details.

Several of our Board Members need special Get Well Wishes including:

YIDDISH HERITAGE CLUB

Gloria Goldman

Our November meeting was enjoyed by everyone. RUBY SOSNOWITZ, his daughter CHANA ROSE, and SARA TODD entertained us with English and Yiddish songs, and we all had a chance to sing along. Ruby is the musical director of the Holocaust Survivor Band. It was a very entertaining program and we thank them for a wonderful presentation.

Thanks also to SARA TODD and HARRIET RESNICK, our hostesses, as well as to IRVING SCHULMAN and GLENN TODD for their ongoing support to our club.

Next month, at our meeting on Friday, December 13, we will celebrate Chanukah - with potato latkes - so be sure to mark your calendar for this treat in the Men's Card Room at 1 pm.

We will have a fantastic program: the new movie "The Jazz Singer (25th Anniversary)" starring Neil Diamond. This movie was just released as a modern version of the original movie with Al Jolson. The new movie is nominated for Three Golden Globe Awards and Neil Diamond is nominated for Best Actor. You don't want to miss this performance so be sure to join us Friday, December 13, at 1pm in the Clubhouse.

Your support is important in keeping Jewish cultural heritage alive and supporting the fight against anti-Semitism

THEATRE ARTS CLUB

Glenn Todd

Many years ago, Theatre Arts produced large, spectacular musicals with original music by ED COOPER and lyrics by FRED ABRAMS.

They were meticulously staged by CHARLOTTE STORPER and SHIRLEY GELFAND, who also created all of the choreography. Her creative choreography included all the solos as well as chorus numbers and show stopping opening and closing numbers.

Perhaps some of the old timers might remember the following two shows called, "Auditions" and "Vegas." In fact, the Palm Beach Post gave us a 2-page spread with great pictures showing us in action.

Unfortunately, time has taken its toll. Talented Fred and Charlotte are no longer with us. Ed and DON EDWARDS are no longer performing, but Shirley continues to teach tap here in Rainberry as she has for 33 years.

Many of us still have the DVDs that were made of our shows. As I watched some of them, seeing former members who are no longer with us and how they performed, causes me to say, "Boy, we were damn good."

As I was listing the names of Theatre Arts people who are no longer here and in writing this closing article, tears were coming to my eyes. I am sure that those of us who are still around are saying, "If I was able to do it over again, I would."

I will leave you with this line from Charlotte's favorite song, "Life is Just a Bowl of Cherries:"

*Life is just a bowl of cherries.
So live and laugh . . .
Laugh and love
Live and laugh at it all!*

The Green Committee has a cart in the clubhouse snack room to collect empty pill bottles with lids (Tri-County Animal Rescue), old mascara wands (wildlife clean-up), corks (recycling & projects) and eyeglasses (reuse) and we appreciate all your "donations."

March 31, April 1 and April 2

Meet us on Tuesdays at 2:00 pm in the Men's Card Room

This is one of the best murder mystery comedies from Broadway to Hollywood. It is a funny show that will lift you out of your seats with broad smiles, suspense, laughter and a bubble of giddy joy.

The play opened on Broadway in 1941 and ran for four years. It was followed by the movie with Cary Grant, Priscilla Lane and many others. Wild comedy, chaos and escalating mayhem ensue in this wonderful black comedy.

Can you act? Would you rather work onstage or backstage? Can you build sets? Do makeup? Sell tickets? If you are interested, you can help in many ways.

For information call: CONRAD BERKE, 561-865-5948; or email conrad.berke@comcast.net.

BRIDGE CLUB

Joel Speiser

"So, what's with this game of bridge, anyway? My parents used to play when I was a kid, but does anybody really play today?"

The American Contract Bridge league (the ACBL) has a membership of over 165,000. They sanction over 3½ million tables of bridge every year played in more than 3,000 bridge clubs, plus an additional 1 million tables played online. Does anybody really play today? You betcha!

Your Rainberry Bay Bridge Club is proud to be one of those 3,000 sponsored bridge clubs. We provide a relaxed and friendly atmosphere where your friends and neighbors can learn the game with instruction on selected Thursday afternoons, with organized informal games after the classes; can earn Master Points in our sanctioned games on Monday evenings; and can enjoy our social get-togethers like our monthly Sunday luncheons and our annual spectacular winter gala celebration. Guests are always welcome—come join us! Call Club Manager Bob Sherburne at 561-414-5184 for more information.

"I'm sorry, Ma'am. I can't adjust your score just because your husband was your partner!"

FOR YOUR BENEFIT:

Read your Rules and Regulations because "I did not know" is not an excuse. If you are planning to make additional changes to your landscaping or to your home, you must get approval from the Architectural Control Committee. If it is landscaping, please show the approval to your landscaper. If you don't know the answer to your question, call one of our Board members.

REUSE, REPURPOSE . . .

SALT

Lois Wiesler

- ◆ Pick up a dropped egg. If an egg breaks on the kitchen floor, sprinkle salt on the mess and leave it there for 20 minutes. You'll be able to wipe it right up.
- ◆ Soothe a bee sting. Wet the sting right away, then cover it with salt.
- ◆ Eliminate a grease fire. Pour salt on top to smother it. (Never use water on a grease fire.)
- ◆ Clean up oven spills. If food boils over onto the oven floor, sprinkle salt on top to stop smoke and odor from forming. When the oven is cool, it'll be easy to brush away the spot.
- ◆ Kill Poison Ivy. Add three pounds of salt to a gallon of soapy water. Spray it onto leaves and stems.
- ◆ Make cream whip more easily and egg whites whip faster and higher. Add a pinch of salt.
- ◆ Kill grass growing in cracks in the cement or between patio stones. Sprinkle salt on the grass and pour very hot water over it. Or sprinkle coarse salt on the grass, let stand all day or overnight, then pour hot tap water over it.
- ◆ Clean a glass coffee pot. Fill it with 1/4 cup of table salt and a dozen ice cubes. Swish the mixture around, let it sit for half an hour, fill it with cold water and rinse.
- ◆ Clean tarnished copper. Fill a 16-ounce spray bottle with hot white vinegar and three tablespoons of salt. Spray it onto the copper, let it sit briefly, then rub clean. (Don't do this to lacquered copper.)
- ◆ Clean coffee and tea stains from china cups. Rub them with salt.
- ◆ Keep potatoes and apples from turning brown once they're sliced. Put them in salted cold water.
- ◆ Clean a cutting board. Cover it with bleach and salt, scrub it with a stiff brush, then rinse with very hot water and wipe with a clean cloth. Repeat with each use.

"Carrie & Allan did a great job listing and helping me sell my villa. It took about 3 weeks from listing to SOLD. They helped in everything they could to get the best price and to help in every part of the process. They're the best."

-Laurel Lasky, Rainberry Bay

"Carrie & Allan helped me purchase our seasonal home at Aberdeen CC some 20 years ago. During that time they handled our property maintenance, leasing when we were unable to come down, and very recently, the sale of our home. They handled every issue with professionalism & always got very good results. I couldn't have worked with better & nicer Agents."

BICYCLE CLUB 2019-20 SEASON

Monique Goudreau

New!!!

The Bicycle Club is continuing its revitalization process!! Come join us for all levels of biking, exercise, and fun. For example, we can bike around the lake, on Rainberry Bay's sidewalks, and/or, on sidewalks and quiet roadways to discover new streets and areas in our own community. We can be bicycle tourists to other close-by interesting places outside of our community, including other communities. And, we can bike on sidewalks to get there. We can explore established bike trails around & into Delray Beach. Or, bike to a close-by wild life sanctuary, especially to see for ourselves beautiful, cranes, storks and herons, nesting with their chicks, etc.

Close-by and quiet Delray historic areas are other very interesting destinations. For the more advanced, you can distance ride with us on the beautiful coastal A1A Hwy. For all levels, we can sometimes bike downtown for breakfast or coffee and a bit of socializing :-).

The following are some of our bike outings organized last year.

- ♦ Tuesdays: Bike to Sunrise Bird Walks at Wakodahatchee.
- ♦ Biking to local events such as "All Peoples Day/Diversity Festival", or to Green Cay for an environmental talk.
- ♦ Local rides to nearby communities (Chateau Woods, Davis Rd South, Historic Delray, Sabal Lakes, Bexley Park & other communities). This is where you will see many lovely peacocks!
- ♦ Lake Osborne, El Rio trails
- ♦ Tri-Rail Trip to West Palm Beach. Some adventurers cooled off in the inlet, then biked to the West Palm Beach City Place where we had lunch or ice cream.

- ♦ Workshop on how to change a bicycle tire.

The "Biking Chair" is MONIQUE GOUDREAU: (Note new email address) LakeSideVdB@gmail.com or 561-265-5924 (snowbird from mid-Nov until near-end April). Join our email list for Biking activities – this is the preferred way to communicate between meetings.

The Bike Club will meet on December 14, 2019 at 9:00 AM at the Clubhouse (room to be determined). Biking activities and outings will be discussed and planned. We solicit your ideas! Come to our most important meeting of the year to plan activities and develop an exciting program for the 2019-2020 season. E-bike residents are welcome; the Club will probably organize an information session on different kinds of e-bikes.

Hope to see many new residents at the meeting! Everyone is welcome!

TABLE TENNIS

Bev Cohen

Paul Newman: Actor, Film Director, Humanitarian, Race Car Driver....and Ping Pong Fanatic. Wherever he lived—in the U.S. or abroad— wherever he worked—in an office or on a movie set—Paul Newman insisted on having a ping pong table there. And he challenged everyone to try to beat him at his favorite game. Here's an iconic picture of him playing ping pong with Robert Redford on the set of "Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid."

Channel your inner Paul Newman and join us for a game of ping pong (singles or doubles) in the clubhouse auditorium at these times: Monday and Wednesday from 12:00PM to 2:00PM and Friday from 10:00AM to 12:00PM. Unlike Newman and Redford, wear a shirt and sneakers; we have extra paddles and balls for you to use. Beginners are welcome to play or watch. Can't wait to meet you!!

TENNIS

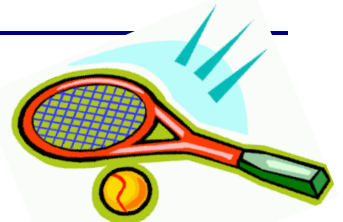

David Kulick

Welcome back snowbirds!

The tennis club is looking forward to several events. We're going to be having our elections soon (you'll be contacted via YourCourts if you're a tennis club member). Remember your $35 annual dues is due and needs to go to PAT PEPPARD. Or leave it in the tennis club mailbox in the clubhouse or give it to CHRISTY CHERRY

The Palm Beach Senior League will be starting up soon. We believe we'll have the same number of Men's and Women's teams as last year and we expect to have fun as usual. You'll need to have your dues paid before the league starts. Expect to receive more information from your team captain (probably before you read this). If you weren't on a team and would like to play on one, talk to our pro Christy.

The tennis club is hosting a Casino Night on March 7th at our theater. This will be a professionally run evening and we'll have various prizes for the patrons. It should be a fun event and while you can't win big money, at least you can't lose it either. There will be food and drink included with your admission cost. We hope to see you all there.

BOCCE

Diane Maxey

MORNINGS – 9 AM WEDNESDAY, SATURDAY, SUNDAY
EVENINGS – 6 PM MONDAY, THURSDAY

As we celebrate Thanksgiving, we couldn't help but think of reasons for being grateful for bocce:

- Exercise, fresh air, and a time in the sun,
- Learning strategies to improve our game,
- Meeting new Rainberry Bay residents,
- BUT, most of all, we are grateful for the friendships and fun times we have celebrating life with these wonderful people.

We have been busy catching up since the bocce courts reopened after two and a half weeks of renovation. We celebrated the grand re-opening of the courts along with a "grand" birthday party on October 28. Over 40 attended the event which honored 14 members with October/November birthdays. The Club also collected items for the Veterans Project sponsored by Rainberry Bay.

Club members have also worked hard to maintain and enhance the physical appearance of the area. We got to "show off" the new courts as we hosted the bocce group from the Ibis community (West Palm Beach) on November 7. Teams split the four games with two wins each.

Snowbirds will be arriving soon and we look forward to a successful year in the Palm Beach County Bocce League. Annual dues are being collected now for 2020, a real bargain at $10.

Katie throws out 1st ball on new courts.
